PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Expertezo

Full Stack Developer (Team Lead) February 2024 – Present

I enhanced my skills in various frameworks and rejoined my former internship company as a Senior Developer. After six months, I was promoted to Team Lead Developer. I now manage the development team, review code, resolve issues, and ensure smooth project execution. I also provide estimates and evaluate developer performance. Additionally, I received an award for Problem Solver of the Quarter 4 2024.

Design Henge

Full Stack MERN Developer | 2023 September - 2024 February

In this office, I was handling a team consisting of five developers, with two specializing in React and two in Node.js. My primary responsibility involves adhering to strict project schedules while overseeing the design and implementation of user interfaces in line with project scopes.

Barlisify

Node js Developer | 2023 January - 2023 March

Creating the backend part of the application, Handling all the email activities and their routes, Integrating Backend APIs through axios library with frontend, Connecting application to the database, Hosting the application live, Creating a fascinating User interface with React JS, Managing and analysing all the DOM manipulation and perform CRUD Operation on Interfaces

Expertezo

React JS Developer (Intern) | 2022 June–2022 August

This was my first internship in React JS, where my job is to understand their current project, which was mostly built on .net and Angular, and translate their front end to React JS.
